7 of the Most Stylish Winter-Ready Rooftops

These handsome bars and restaurants are just as great—if not better—in cooler weather

The Rooftop at the Refinery Hotel, New York For the first time since it opened in 2013, this popular rooftop venue is installing a tent and heaters on its outdoor terrace to maximize cold-weather lounging options. The new winterized area joins the existing indoor bar, which is protected by a retractable glass roof and features beamed ceilings and a fireplace. refineryrooftopnyc.com
