There are so many rooftop bars in NYC, that there's really no way any one person could know about all of them. And that's why we had two people write this. Here's your neighborhood-by-neighborhood guide to every rooftop bar in NYC (80 total!) worth knowing about.

AVA LOUNGE

Above 6

6 Columbus Circle

Overlook Columbus Circle from this spot with a retractable roof, so if it's raining, you STILL don't have to drink at street level.

Ava Lounge

210 W 55th St

Styled after the French Riviera, this 14th floor bar is named after movie star Ava Gardner.

Bar 54

135 W 45th St

It's NYC's highest rooftop lounge.

Four at Yotel

570 10th Ave

They do party brunches here on the weekends.

Haven Rooftop at Sanctuary Hotel

132 W 47th St

Get there at the right time, and you can score a shotski.

Le Parker Meridien New York

119 W 56th St

For $300 per month, you can score access to their rooftop pool and swim, tan, and drink with amazing views of Central Park.

Local West

1 Penn Plaza

Perfect after being cooped up on a train or at MSG for a while.

Refinery Rooftop

63 W 38th St

This stunner has nice eats like lobster rolls, Parm fries, and a three-tiered flatbread platter.

You'll probably just have cocktails, though.

Sky Room

330 W 40th St

One of the only reasons to be near Times Square during after-work hours.

Supernova Bar

226 W 52nd St

The wrap-around terrace is armed with fire pits... just in case.

The Skylark Rooftop Deck

200 W 39th St

You've got an solid chance of hanging with some models here. Also, they've got mac 'n cheese cupcakes.

View Lounge

1535 Broadway

$8 cover for non-hotel guests after 8pm.

VU Rooftop Bar

17 West 32nd St

It's happy hour all day on Sundays, plus there're great views of the Empire State Building.

Sky Terrace at the Hudson Hotel

356 W 58th St

They've got 10 specialty sangrias.
