WHISKY BUSINESS

Want a shot at a free St. Patrick's Day bar tab?

The Parker & Quinn bistro has added a vintage-style photo booth to the back of its bistro in the Refinery Hotel (L.), and it's inviting guests to snap photos while sipping one of the bar's specialty "Cell Block J" cocktails (mixed with Jameson Black Barrel, Prickly Pear Liqueur and ginger beer).

Post your best old-timey pic on Instagram and Twitter with the hashtags #CellBlockJ and #Jameson by Sunday, and the selfie with the most "likes" scores free drinks at the bar on Tuesday for up to four friends.

"Everyone loves an Instagram-able moment, including our patrons, so we thought a festive social media contest would be fun," says manager Rob McGovern. "A free bar tab doesn't hurt, either!" Step into the booth and try your luck. Just make sure your Irish eyes are smiling.
